“AN ETHICALLY AMBIGUOUS DRAMA
THAT RAISES BARBED QUESTIONS ABOUT
CLASS, RACE, PARENTAL DUTY, AND THE STATE OF AMERICAN EDUCATION.”

—VARIETY

Nya is a single mom and dedicated teacher at a high-poverty city school, determined to give her teenaged son Omari opportunities that her students will never have. When an altercation with a teacher at his private school threatens Omari's future, Nya has to fight a system that's against him in any environment. A searing, eloquent, and deeply compassionate look at a broken education system, the moments we are pushed to our limits, and the ferocity of one parent's love.
